So I don't see where there's any privilege when the attorney for Jane Doe, I.P. said you never spoke to her.  MR. JENSEN: Is that — you're asking the witness about whether —  MR. WYRSCH: Well, I'm asking you to reconsider your objection.  MR. JENSEN: I'm not aware of there being a written waiver on behalf of this Jane Doe allowing SNAP to the speak in violation — otherwise it would be a violation of the Rape Crisis Center Statute.  MR. WYRSCH: Just for the record, if he never spoke to her, SNAP never spoke to her, there is no privilege. BY MR. WYRSCH:

2	A. Let's see. Where to start. We	2		920
3	praised the diocese of Metuchen, New Jersey, a	3
4	bishop there I want to say in 2003. We often	4
5	include the phrase: We are grateful that the	5	•
6	bishop has suspended Father X or Father Y. We	6		3:238
7	often say we are glad that the Vatican has	7	,	3:238
В	defrocked Father X or Father Y.	8
9	We praised a bishop in the case of	9
0	Father Henry Willenborg in Wisconsin who refused	10
11	to do the hair-splitting and excuse-making and do	11
.2	nothing when Father Willenborg was credibly	12
.3	accused of molesting a child and sexually	13
4	exploiting an adult vulnerable Catholic	14
.5	parishioner and impregnating her and then ignoring	15	·
6	her child and refusing to support the child. That	16
.7	bishop removed Father Willenborg from parish	17
.8	ministry just two and a half years ago, even	18
9	though he could have done what so many of his	19
0	brother bishops did, he could have claimed well,	20
1	he's a religious order priest and I'm a bishop and	21
2	I don't have any control over him.	22
3	We've praised Bishop Wilton Gregory of	23
4	Belleville, formerly of Atlanta, several times,	24
5	any number of times frankly.	25
